SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

This Settlement Agreement and Release (“Agreement” or “Settlement Agreement”) is made and entered into on March 7, 2016, by and among (1) Settlement Class Representatives (as defined in Paragraph 27), for themselves and on behalf of the Settlement Class (as defined in Paragraphs 25-26), and (2) Home Depot U.S.A., Inc. and The Home Depot, Inc. (collectively “Home Depot”), and subject to preliminary and final Court approval as required by Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Settlement Class Representatives and Home Depot enter into this agreement by and through their respective counsel. As provided herein, Home Depot and Settlement Class Representatives hereby stipulate and agree that, in consideration of the promises and covenants set forth in this Agreement and upon entry by the Court of a final order and judgment, all claims of the Settlement Class Representatives and the Settlement Class (as defined in Paragraph 21) against Home Depot in the action titled In re: The Home Depot, Inc., Customer Data Security Breach Litigation, Case No. 1:14-md-02583-TWT (N.D. Ga.) (Consumer Cases) (the “Consumer Action”), shall be settled and compromised upon the terms and conditions contained herein. Settlement Class Representatives and Home Depot are collectively referred to herein as the “Parties.”

I. RECITALS

A. In September of 2014, Home Depot announced that its payment data systems had been breached, which could potentially impact customers who used their debit and credit cards to make purchases at Home Depot stores located in the United States (the “Data Breach”).

B. After announcement of the Data Breach, multiple putative class action lawsuits were filed against Home Depot in jurisdictions across the country for Home Depot’s alleged inadequate data security practices and delay in notifying customers of the Data Breach (“Data Breach Cases”).

C. On December 11, 2014, the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation (“MDL Panel”) consolidated the Data Breach Cases and all tag-along cases for coordinated pretrial proceedings in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia.

D. In order to manage the litigation most efficiently, the Court created separate litigation tracks for Consumer Cases and Financial Institution Cases (Dkt. No. 36), and appointed separate leadership for each track. (Dkt. Nos. 60 & 62.) The Court appointed Co-Lead and Liaison Counsel for the Consumer Cases to, among other duties, direct and manage pretrial proceedings and coordinate settlement discussions or other dispute resolution efforts on behalf of Consumer Plaintiffs (as defined in Paragraph 4). (Id.)

E. On May 1, 2015, the Consumer Plaintiffs filed a Consumer Plaintiffs Consolidated Class Action Complaint (the “Complaint”) (Dkt. No. 93) against Home Depot asserting claims for alleged violations of state consumer protection statutes, state data breach notification statutes, and other state-specific statutes, negligence, breach of implied contract, and unjust enrichment, and seeking a declaratory judgment. On June 1, 2015, Home Depot moved to dismiss the Consolidated Class Action Complaint (the “Motion to Dismiss”). The Court heard oral arguments on the Motion to Dismiss on October 22, 2015.

F. Between September 1, 2015 and January 25, 2016, the Parties participated in two formal mediation sessions with mediator Jonathan B. Marks of MarksADR, LLC, engaged in numerous telephone conferences with Mr. Marks, and negotiated directly among counsel.

G. On January 26, 2016, the Parties reached an agreement in principle on a proposed settlement for the Consumer Action and executed a settlement term sheet requiring submission of a final settlement agreement to the Court for preliminary approval within 45 days. That same day, the Parties notified the Court’s clerk of their agreement in principle. The Parties did not discuss attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses prior to executing the settlement term sheet which memorialized the essential terms of the Parties’ settlement.

H. The Parties now agree to settle the Consumer Action in its entirety, without any admission of liability, with respect to all Released Claims (as defined in Paragraph 56) of the Settlement Class. The Parties intend this Agreement to bind Settlement Class Representatives, Home Depot, and all Settlement Class Members who do not timely and properly exclude themselves from the Settlement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in light of the foregoing, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby mutually acknowledged, it is hereby stipulated and agreed by the Parties that the Consumer Action be settled, compromised, and dismissed on the merits and with prejudice as to Home Depot, subject to Court approval as required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, on the following terms and conditions:

The Final Approval Hearing shall be scheduled no earlier than 90 days after the CAFA notices are mailed to ensure compliance with 28 U.S.C § 1715. By no later than 21 days prior to the Objection Deadline, Plaintiffs shall file a motion for final approval of the Settlement and a motion for attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses and for Service Awards. By no later than 14 days prior to the Final Approval Hearing, the Parties shall file responses, if any, to any objections, and any replies in support of final approval of the Settlement and/or Class Counsel's application for attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses and for Service Awards. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will consider Settlement Class Representatives' motion for final approval of the Settlement, and Class Counsel's application for attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses and for Service Awards. In the Court's discretion, the Court also may hear argument at the Final Approval Hearing from any Settlement Class Members (or their counsel) who object to the Settlement or to the application for attorneys' fees, costs, expenses and for Service Awards, provided the objectors filed timely objections that meet all of the requirements listed in Paragraph 48.

55. At or following the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will determine whether to enter the Final Approval Order granting final approval of the Settlement, and whether to approve Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees, costs, expenses, and the Service Awards. The proposed Final Approval Order that will be filed with the motion for final approval shall be in a form agreed upon by Class Counsel and Home Depot. Such proposed Final Approval Order shall, among other things:

- a. Determine that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable;
- b. Finally certify the Settlement Class for settlement purposes only;

- c. Determine that the Notice provided satisfied Due Process requirements;
- d. Dismiss the Consumer Action with prejudice;
- e. Bar and enjoin the Releasing Parties from asserting any of the Released Claims, as set forth in Section XI, including during the pendency of any appeal from the Final Approval Order;
- f. Release Home Depot and the Released Parties from the Released Claims, as set forth in Section XI; and
- g. Reserve the Court's continuing and exclusive jurisdiction over Home Depot and all Settlement Class Members (including all objectors) to administer, supervise, construe, and enforce this Agreement in accordance with its terms.

XI. RELEASES

56. As of the Effective Date, the Releasing Parties, each on behalf of himself or herself and on behalf of his or her respective heirs, assigns, beneficiaries, and successors, shall automatically be deemed to have fully and irrevocably released and forever discharged Home Depot and each of its present and former parents, subsidiaries, divisions, affiliates, predecessors, successors, and assigns, and the present and former directors, officers, employees, agents, insurers, shareholders, attorneys, advisors, consultants, representatives, partners, joint venturers, independent contractors, wholesalers, resellers, distributors, retailers, predecessors, successors, and assigns of each of them (collectively the "Released Parties"), of and from any and all liabilities, rights, claims, actions, causes of action, demands, damages, penalties, costs, attorneys' fees, losses, and remedies, whether known or unknown, existing or potential, suspected or unsuspected, liquidated or unliquidated, legal, statutory, or equitable, that result from, arise out of, are based upon, or relate to the Data Breach that were or could have been alleged in the Consumer Action, including, without limitation, any claims, actions, causes of action, demands, damages, penalties, losses, or remedies relating to, based upon, resulting from, or arising out of (1) the theft, exposure or disclosure of Settlement Class Members' Personal Information; (2) Home Depot's maintenance and storage of Settlement Class Members' Personal Information; (3) Home Depot's information security policies and practices; and (4) Home Depot's notice of the Data Breach to Settlement Class Members (the "Released Claims").

57. For the avoidance of doubt, the Released Claims include any claims that a Releasing Party may have under the law of any jurisdiction, including, without limitation, those arising under state or federal law of the United States (including, without limitation, any causes of action under the California Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq., California Civil Code § 1750 et seq., California Civil Code § 1798.80 et seq., California Civil Code § 56.10 et seq., and any similar statutes or data breach notification statutes in effect in the United States or in any states in the United States); causes of action under the common or civil laws of any state in the United States, including but not limited to: unjust enrichment, negligence, bailment, conversion, negligence per se, breach of contract, breach of implied contract, breach of fiduciary duty, breach of implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, misrepresentation (whether fraudulent, negligent, or innocent), fraudulent concealment or nondisclosure, invasion of privacy, public disclosure of private facts, and misappropriation of likeness and identity; any causes of action based on privacy rights provided for under the constitutions of the United States or of any states in the United States; and also including, but not limited to, any and all claims in any state or federal court of the United States, for damages, injunctive relief, restitution, disgorgement, declaratory relief, equitable relief, attorneys' fees and expenses, pre-judgment interest, credit or financial account monitoring services, identity theft insurance, the creation of a fund for future damages, statutory penalties, restitution, the appointment of a receiver, and any other form of relief. The Released Claims do not include any claims arising from or relating to any conduct by Home Depot after the date the Agreement is executed.

58. As of the Effective Date, the Released Parties will be deemed to have completely released and forever discharged the Releasing Parties and Class Counsel from and for any and all liabilities, claims, cross-claims, causes of action, rights, actions, suits, debts, liens, contracts, agreements, damages, costs, attorneys' fees, losses, expenses, obligations, or demands, of any kind whatsoever, whether known or unknown, existing or potential, or suspected or unsuspected, whether raised by claim, counterclaim, setoff, or otherwise, including any known or unknown claims, which they have or may claim now or in the future to have, relating to the institution, prosecution, or settlement of the Consumer Action.

59. Upon entry of the Final Judgment, the Settlement Class Members shall be enjoined from prosecuting any claim they have released in the preceding paragraphs in any proceeding against any of the Released Parties or based on any actions taken by any of the Released Parties that are authorized or required by this Agreement or by the Final Judgment. It is further agreed that the Settlement may be pleaded as a complete defense to any proceeding subject to this section.

XII. ATTORNEYS' FEES, COSTS, EXPENSES AND SERVICE AWARDS

60. Service Awards. Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve, and Home Depot will not oppose, service awards not to exceed $1,000 for each Settlement Class Representative and Consumer Plaintiff, which are intended to compensate such individuals for their efforts in the litigation and commitment on behalf of the Settlement Class ("Service Awards"). Any Service Awards approved will be paid from the Settlement Fund. Neither Class Counsel's application for, nor any individual's entitlement to, a Service Award shall be conditioned in any way upon such individual's support for this Agreement.

61. Attorneys' Fees, Costs and Expenses. Home Depot agrees to pay the reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and expenses of counsel for the Consumer Plaintiffs separate from and in addition to the Settlement Fund. Class Counsel will make its application for such attorneys' fees, costs and expenses pursuant to a Fee Request at least 21 days before the Objection Deadline. Home Depot reserves the right to object to Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees; provided, however, that Home Depot waives its right to appeal if the amount awarded by the Court in attorneys' fees does not exceed $8,475,000.00. In addition, Home Depot agrees not to oppose Class Counsel's request for reimbursement of reasonable costs and expenses up to $300,000.00. Any award of attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses shall be paid separate from and in addition to the Settlement Fund. The finality or effectiveness of the Settlement will not be dependent on the Court awarding Class Counsel any particular amount on their Fee Request and shall not alter the Effective Date.

62. Within ten (10) business days of the later of the Effective Date or a final order approving Class Counsel's Fee Request after the time for seeking rehearing, appellate or other review of the Fee Request has expired, Home Depot shall pay to Class Counsel all Court-approved attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses. In the event that the award of attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses is reduced on appeal, Home Depot shall only pay the reduced amount of such award. Class Counsel shall timely furnish to Home Depot any required tax information, account information or necessary forms before the payment is due.

63. The payment of attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses pursuant to Paragraphs 61-62 shall be made through a wired deposit by Home Depot into the attorney client trust account to be designated by Class Counsel. After the attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses have been deposited into this account, Class Counsel shall be solely responsible for allocating such attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses and distributing each participating firm's allocated share of such attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses to that firm and Home Depot shall have no responsibility for distribution of attorneys' fees, costs, or expenses among participating firms.

64. In the event the Court declines to approve, in whole or in part, the payment of attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses in the amounts that Class Counsel requests, the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. No order of the Court, or modification or reversal or appeal of any order of the Court, concerning the amount(s) of attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses shall constitute grounds for cancellation or termination of this Agreement.

XIII. TERMINATION

65. Home Depot shall have the sole discretion to terminate the Settlement Agreement if a certain percentage of the total number of Settlement Class Members submit valid requests to opt out as separately agreed to by the Parties and submitted to the Court for in camera review.

66. This Settlement may be terminated by either Settlement Class Representatives or Home Depot by serving on counsel for the opposing Party and filing with the Court a written notice of termination within 14 days (or such longer time as may be agreed between Class Counsel and Home Depot) after any of the following occurrences:

- a. Class Counsel and Home Depot agree to termination before the Effective Date;
- b. The Court rejects, materially modifies, materially amends or changes, or declines to preliminarily or finally approve the Settlement;
- c. An appellate court reverses the Final Approval Order, and the Settlement is not reinstated and finally approved without material change by the Court on remand;

- d. The Court or any reviewing appellate court incorporates material terms or provisions into, or deletes or strikes material terms or provisions from, or materially modifies, amends, or changes, the Preliminary Approval Order, the proposed Final Approval Order, or the Settlement; or
- e. The Effective Date does not occur.

67. In the event of a termination as provided in Paragraphs 65-66, this Agreement shall be considered null and void; all of the Parties' obligations under the Agreement shall cease to be of any force and effect and the Parties shall return to the status quo ante in the Consumer Action as if the Parties had not entered into this Agreement. In addition, in the event of such a termination, all of the Parties' respective pre-Settlement claims and defenses will be preserved.

XIV. NO ADMISSION OF LIABILITY

68. Home Depot disputes the claims alleged in the Consumer Action and does not by this Agreement or otherwise admit any liability or wrongdoing of any kind. Home Depot has agreed to enter into this Agreement solely to avoid the further expense, inconvenience, and distraction of burdensome and protracted litigation, and to be completely free of any further claims that were asserted or could have been asserted in the Consumer Action.

69. Class Counsel and Settlement Class Representatives believe that the claims asserted in the Action have merit, and they have examined and considered the benefits to be obtained under the proposed Settlement set forth in this Agreement, the risks associated with the continued prosecution of this complex, costly, and time-consuming litigation, and the likelihood of success on the merits of the Action. Class Counsel and Settlement Class Representatives have concluded that the proposed Settlement set forth in this Agreement is fair, adequate, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class Members.

70. The Parties understand and acknowledge that this Agreement constitutes a compromise and settlement of disputed claims. No action taken by the Parties either previously or in connection with the negotiations or proceedings connected with this Agreement shall be deemed or construed to be an admission of the truth or falsity of any claims or defenses heretofore made, or an acknowledgment or admission by any party of any fault, liability, or wrongdoing of any kind whatsoever.

71. Neither the Settlement, nor any act performed or document executed pursuant to or in furtherance of the Settlement: (a) is or may be deemed to be, or may be used as, an admission of, or evidence of, the validity of any claim made by Consumer Plaintiffs or Settlement Class Members, or of any wrongdoing or liability of the Released Parties; or (b) is or may be deemed to be, or may be used as, an admission of, or evidence of, any fault or omission of any of the Released Parties, in the Consumer Action or in any proceeding in any court, administrative agency or other tribunal.

XV. MISCELLANEOUS

72. Singular and Plurals. As used in this Agreement, all references to the plural shall also mean the singular and to the singular shall also mean the plural whenever the context so indicates.

73. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors and assigns of the Releasing Parties and the Released Parties.

74. Cooperation of Parties. The Parties to this Agreement agree to cooperate in good faith to prepare and execute all documents, to seek Court approval, defend Court approval, and to do all things reasonably necessary to complete and effectuate the Settlement described in this Agreement.

75. Obligation To Meet And Confer. Before filing any motion in the Court raising a dispute arising out of or related to this Agreement, the Parties shall consult with each other and certify to the Court that they have consulted in good faith.

76. Integration. This Agreement (along with any Exhibits attached hereto) constitutes a single, integrated written contract expressing the entire agreement of the Parties relative to the subject matter hereof. No covenants, agreements, representations, or warranties of any kind whatsoever have been made by any Party hereto, except as provided for herein.

77. No Conflict Intended. Any inconsistency between the headings used in this Agreement and the text of the paragraphs of this Agreement shall be resolved in favor of the text.

78. Governing Law. The Agreement shall be construed in accordance with, and be governed by, the laws of the State of Georgia, without regard to the principles thereof regarding choice of law.

79. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument, even though all signatories do not sign the same counterparts. Original signatures are not required. Any signature submitted by facsimile or through email of an Adobe PDF shall be deemed an original.

80. Jurisdiction. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over the implementation, enforcement, and performance of this Agreement, and shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any suit, action, proceeding or dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement that cannot be resolved by negotiation and agreement by counsel for the Parties. The Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to the administration, consummation and enforcement of the Agreement and shall retain jurisdiction for the purpose of enforcing all terms of the Agreement. The Court shall also retain jurisdiction over all questions and/or disputes related to the Notice Program and the Settlement Administrator. As part of its agreement to render services in connection with this Settlement, the Settlement Administrator shall consent to the jurisdiction of the Court for this purpose.

DISTRIBUTION AND ALLOCATION PLAN

In re: The Home Depot, Inc., Customer Data Security Breach Litigation, Case No. 1:14-md-02583-TWT (N.D. Ga.)

I. CLAIMS

1. Claim Form. The Claim Form shall be substantially in the form attached as Exhibit C to the Settlement Agreement.
2. Documented Claims. Settlement Class Members who submit a valid Claim Form and Reasonable Documentation of Substantiated Losses for out-of-pocket losses, unreimbursed charges, or time spent remedying issues fairly traceable to the Home Depot data breach are eligible for reimbursement of Substantiated Losses up to a maximum of $10,000 (“Documented Claim”). Settlement Class Members may submit a documented claim for up to five hours of time spent remedying issues fairly traceable to the Home Depot data breach to be compensated at $15 per hour. Settlement Class Members may only make a single claim under the fund. Settlement Class Members who choose to submit a Documented Claim must complete the “DOCUMENTED CLAIMS FOR OUT-OF-POCKET LOSSES, UNREIMBURSED CHARGES, OR TIME SPENT REMEDYING ISSUES RELATING TO THE DATA BREACH” section of the Claim Form, and submit reasonable documentation as specified in the Claim Form and Paragraph 17 of the Settlement Agreement.
3. Self-Certified Time Claims. Settlement Class Members with Reasonable Documentation of Substantiated Losses for out-of-pocket losses or unreimbursed charges who cannot separately document their time remedying issues fairly traceable to the Home Depot data breach may self-certify the amount of time they spent remedying issues relating to the data breach and file a claim for up to two hours at $15 per hour (“Self-Certified Time”). Settlement Class Members who choose to a claim for Self-Certified Time must provide an attestation by signing and dating the “SELF-CERTIFIED CLAIMS FOR TIME” section of the Claim Form.
4. Identity Guard Monitoring Services. Settlement Class Members who used a debit or credit card at a self-checkout lane at a U.S. Home Depot store between April 10, 2014 and September 13, 2014 and whose payment card information was compromised are eligible to enroll in 18 months of free Identity Guard® “Essentials” account monitoring services (“Identity Guard Monitoring Services”). Eligibility to enroll in Identity Guard Monitoring Services is not dependent on submission of a Documented Claim. Settlement Class Members who choose to enroll in Identity Guard Monitoring Services must complete the “IDENTITY GUARD® ESSENTIALS MONITORING SERVICES” section of the Claims Form.

II. CLAIM VALIDATION PROCESS

5. Verification by the Settlement Administrator: The Settlement Administrator, in its sole discretion to be reasonably exercised, will evaluate claims submitted to determine whether: (a) the claimant is a Settlement Class Member; (b) the claimant used a debit or credit card at a self-checkout lane at a U.S. Home Depot store between April 10, 2014 and September 13, 2014 and had his/her payment card information compromised in order to enroll in Identity Guard Monitoring Services; (c) the Claim Form is complete and accurate; (d) the Settlement Class Member signed the attestation as required to submit a claim for Self-Certified Time; (d) the claimant provided the information needed to evaluate the Claim Form; and (e) for Documented Claims, the information and documentation submitted, if true, could lead a reasonable person to believe that, more likely than not, the claimant has suffered Substantiated Losses.
6. Determination by the Settlement Administrator: The Settlement Administrator, in its discretion to be reasonably exercised, will determine the amount of Substantiated Losses for Documented Claims and/or Self-Certified Time Claims, up to a maximum of $10,000 per Settlement Class Member. The Settlement Administrator's decision will be final, subject to the dispute resolution process in Section III below.

III. DISPUTE RESOLUTION FOR DOCUMENTED CLAIMS

7. Notification: If the Settlement Administrator determines the Substantiated Losses are less than the amount requested by the claimant (including claims submitted with documentation, but for which the Settlement Administrator determines the Substantiated Losses are $0), the Settlement Administrator will notify the claimant by mail within 21 days of receipt by the Settlement Administrator.
8. Dispute Procedures: Recipients will have 14 days from receipt to respond to the Settlement Administrator by reply mail stating whether he or she accepts or rejects the Settlement Administrator's determination. If the claimant rejects the offer, the Settlement Administrator will have 10 days to reconsider the original determination, make a final determination, and communicate the final determination to the claimant by mail. The claimant will have 10 days to reply back to the Settlement Administrator by mail to accept or reject the final determination. If the claimant approves the final determination or fails to send a timely response to any communication from the Settlement Administrator, then the approved amount will be the amount to be paid. If the final determination is timely rejected by the claimant, then the dispute will be resolved in accordance with the procedures set out in Paragraphs 9-12 below.
9. Claim File: After receipt of the claimant's rejection of the final determination, the Settlement Administrator will provide Class Counsel and Home Depot's Counsel (together "Counsel") with a copy of the Claim Form and documentation submitted by the claimant, and the communications between the Settlement Administrator and the claimant (the "Claim File").

10. Counsel Determination: Counsel will confer regarding the amount of Substantiated Losses. If Counsel agree that the claimant is entitled to the amount of Substantiated Losses requested on the Claim Form, their determination will be final. Counsel will inform the Settlement Administrator of their determination, and the Settlement Administrator will provide notice of the decision to the claimant.
11. Claim Referee: If Counsel agree that the claimant is entitled to less than the amount of Substantiated Losses requested on the Claim Form, or if they cannot agree on the amount of Substantiated Losses, they will notify the Settlement Administrator by email (“Counsel’s Notice”) and the dispute will be submitted to one or more neutral third parties designated by agreement of the Parties to make final decisions about disputed claims (the “Claim Referee”).
12. Final Decision: After receipt of Counsel’s Notice, the Settlement Administrator will provide the Claim Referee with a copy of the Claim File. The Claim Referee will not consider any other documentation or information in making a decision. The Claim Referee will make a final determination of the amount of Substantiated Losses based on whether the claimed amount or some portion of the claimed amount is reasonably supported in fact and more likely than not caused by the Home Depot Data Breach. The Claim Referee’s decision will be final and not subject to appeal or further review.

IV. DISTRIBUTION ORDER AND DISTRIBUTION OF REMAINING FUNDS

13. Distribution Order: The Settlement Administrator will distribute the Net Settlement Fund in the following order: (1) payments to Settlement Class Members who submitted valid Documented Claims and/or Self-Certified Time Claims; (2) Service Awards to Settlement Class Representatives awarded by the Court.
14. Pro-Rata Contingency. To the extent valid Documented Claims and/or Self-Certified Time exceed the Net Settlement Fund, the cash benefit to each Settlement Class Member shall be reduced and distributed by the Settlement Administrator on a pro rata basis pursuant to Paragraph 35 of the Settlement Agreement
15. Distribution of Remaining Funds: If the distributions set forth in Paragraph 13 do not collectively exhaust the Net Settlement Fund, then the remaining proceeds will be distributed as set forth in Paragraph 36 of the Settlement Agreement.

- The Court still must decide whether to approve the Settlement. No payments will be made until after the Court grants final approval of the Settlement and all appeals, if any, are resolved.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why is there a notice?

A Court authorized this notice because you have a right to know about a proposed settlement in several lawsuits against Home Depot, and all of your options, before the Court decides whether to give final approval to the settlement. This notice explains the nature of the lawsuits, the general terms of the settlement, and your legal rights and options.

The lawsuits were brought on behalf of consumers whose credit/debit card information or personal information was stolen as a result of the Home Depot Breach. Judge Thomas W. Thrash of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia is overseeing this litigation. The litigation is known as In re: The Home Depot, Inc., Customer Data Security Breach Litigation, Case No. 1:14-md-02583-TWT. The consumers who sued are called the “Plaintiffs.” Home Depot is the “Defendant.”

2. What is this lawsuit about?

In September 2014, Home Depot announced that it had been the victim of a data breach by third-party intruders who stole payment card data from consumers who made purchases using a self-checkout terminal at a U.S. Home Depot store between April 10, 2014 and September 13, 2014. The intruders also stole a separate email file which contained the email addresses of certain Home Depot customers. Plaintiffs claim that Home Depot did not adequately protect its payment card data and personal information and that Home Depot delayed in providing notice of the data breach. Home Depot denies any wrongdoing, and no court or other judicial entity has made any judgment or other determination of any wrongdoing.

3. Why is this a class action?

In a class action, one or more people called “class representatives” sue on behalf of themselves and other people with similar claims. All of these people together are the “class” or “class members.” One court resolves the issues for all class members, except for those who exclude themselves from the settlement class.

4. Why is there a settlement?

The Court has not decided in favor of Plaintiffs or Home Depot. Instead, both sides agreed to a settlement. Settlements avoid the costs and uncertainty of a trial and related appeals, while providing benefits to members of the settlement class (“Settlement Class Members”). The “Settlement Class Representatives” appointed to represent the class, and the attorneys for the Settlement Class (“Settlement Class Counsel,” see Question 17) think the settlement is best for all Settlement Class Members.

WHO IS PART OF THE SETTLEMENT?

5. How do I know if I am part of the settlement?

You are a member of the Settlement Class and affected by the settlement if your personal information was stolen as a result of the Home Depot Data Breach.

You are a member of the Settlement Class if:

- You used your credit or debit card at a self-checkout lane at a U.S. Home Depot store between April 10, 2014 and September 13, 2014 and your payment card information was compromised;
- You received notification that your e-mail address was compromised; or
- You received a settlement notice by email stating that you are a Class Member.

Excluded from the settlement are:

- Officers and directors of Home Depot;
- The presiding judge and any judicial staff involved in the lawsuit; and
- Any Class Member who opts out (see Question 14).

If you are not sure whether you are included in the Settlement Class, call 1-8xx-xxx-xxxx.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS

6. What does the settlement provide?

Home Depot will pay $13 million into a Settlement Fund to make payments to eligible Settlement Class Members and service payments to the Settlement Class Representatives (see Question 18). Home Depot has also agreed to pay attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses (see Question 18) and the costs of notifying the class and administering the settlement.

In addition, Home Depot will pay to provide for 18 months of Identity Guard® Essentials monitoring services for all Settlement Class Members who used a payment card at self-checkout lanes at U.S. Home Depot stores between April 10, 2014 and September 13, 2014 and had their payment card information compromised, who elect to enroll in the service.

Home Depot has also agreed to maintain and implement certain business practices relating to its information security program, including naming a high-level executive to coordinate the program, conducting regular data risk assessments, implementing reasonable safeguards to address issues raised in risk assessments, maintaining and making available to its customers clear written disclosures explaining that Home Depot stores certain customer information and describing how the company uses that information, implementing an employee education program to educate and train its workforce on the importance of the privacy and security of customer information, and adopting enhanced encryption and security measures for all credit and debit card transactions. A more detailed description of these changes is available in the Settlement Agreement which is available at www._____.com.

If you have documented out-of-pocket losses or unreimbursed charges, you will be eligible to self-certify your time spent remedying issues relating to the Home Depot data breach at $15 per hour for up to 2 hours.

Monitoring Services: Regardless of whether you submit a claim for documented losses, if you are a Settlement Class Member who used a credit or debit card at a self-checkout terminal at a U.S. Home Depot store between April 10, 2014 and September 13, 2014 and your payment card information was compromised, you are eligible to enroll in 18 months of free Identity Guard® Essentials identity monitoring services.

- Late fees, declined payment fees, overdraft fees, returned check fees, customer service fees, and/or card cancellation or replacement fees as a result of Home Depot data breach; and
- Any other losses that can be fairly traced to the Home Depot Data Breach.

Questions? Go to www._____.com or call 1-8xx-xxx-xxxx

If you have documents supporting the time spent remedying issues relating to the Home Depot data breach, you can receive $15 per hour for up to 5 hours. Documents reflecting time spent may include, for example, phone bills reflecting time spent on the phone with your bank. Settlement Class Members who have documented losses can self-certify their time spent remedying issues relating to the Home Depot data breach at $15 per hour for up to 2 hours. Class members without documented losses cannot self-certify claims for time.

9. What benefits does Identity Guard® Essentials provide?

The Identity Guard® Essentials service is designed to help recover any financial losses and restore identities. The Settlement Agreement describes the Released Claims with specific and accurate legal descriptions, so read it carefully.

18. How will the lawyers be paid?

The Court will decide the amount of fees and costs and expenses to be paid. These fees and costs will be paid separately by Home Depot and will not reduce the amount of benefits provided to the Settlement Class. Settlement Class Counsel will also ask the Court for service payments of up to $1,000 for each of the 88 Settlement Class Representatives for helping the lawyers on behalf of the Settlement Class. These service payments will be paid out of the Settlement Fund. The Settlement Class Representatives and Settlement Class Counsel will make their requests to the Court for attorneys’ fees and costs and service payments on or before June 27, 2016. OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

19. How do I tell the Court that I don’t like the settlement?

If you are a Settlement Class Member, you can object to the settlement if you don’t think it is fair, reasonable, or adequate. You can give reasons why you think the Court should not approve it. The Court will consider your views.

To object, you must send a letter stating that you object to the settlement. Your objection must include:

- The name of this proceeding (In re: The Home Depot, Inc., Customer Data Security Breach Litigation, or similar identifying words);

Questions? Go to www.com or call 1-8xx-xxx-xxxx

- Your full name, address, email address, and telephone number;
- Information illustrating that you are a Settlement Class Member;
- The reasons for the objection, as well as any documents supporting the objection;
- The identity your attorneys, if applicable, including any former or current counsel who may be entitled to compensation for any reason related to the objection;
- A description of the number of times in which you or your lawyer has objected to a class action settlement within the previous five years, the caption of each case, and a copy of any court orders related to or ruling upon you or your lawyer’s prior objections;
- Any and all agreements, written or verbal, between you or your lawyer and any other person or entity that relate to the objection or the process of objecting;
- A list of any persons you or your lawyer plan to call to testify at the Final Approval Hearing in support of your objection;
- Any evidence or other information you wish to introduce in support of your objections;
- A statement of whether you or your lawyer intends to appear and/or testify at the Final Approval Hearing; and
- Your signature on the written objection (an attorney’s signature is not sufficient).

To be considered by the Court, your objection must be mailed, postmarked no later than July 18, 2016, to the following three recipients at the following addresses:

COURT	CLASS COUNSEL	DEFENSE COUNSEL
XXXXXX	XXXXXX	XXXXXX

20. What’s the difference between objecting and excluding myself?

Objecting is simply telling the Court that you don’t like something about the settlement. You can object to the benefits provided by the settlement or other terms of the settlement only if you stay in the Settlement Class. Excluding yourself is telling the Court that you don’t want to be included in the settlement. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object to the settlement and related releases because the settlement no longer affects you.

FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

21. When and where will the Court decide to approve the settlement?

The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing at TIME on DATE, in the Courtroom of Judge Thomas W. Thrash at the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, located in Courtroom 2108 of the Richard B. Russell Federal Building and United States Courthouse, 75 Ted Turner Dr., SW, Atlanta, Georgia 30303-3309. This hearing date and time may be moved. Please refer to the Settlement Website for notice of any changes.

At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will consider whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. If there are objections, the Court will consider them. The Court will listen to people who appear at the hearing (see Question 22). The Court may also decide how much Settlement Class Counsel will receive as attorneys' fees and costs and whether to award service payments to Settlement Class Representatives. After the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve the settlement. We do not know how long these decisions will take.

22. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Settlement Class Counsel will answer questions the Court may have. However, you are welcome to come at your own expense. If you submit a written objection, you don't have to come to Court to talk about it. As long as you submitted your written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may also pay your own lawyer to attend, but it's not necessary.

IF I DO NOTHING

23. What happens if I do nothing?

If you are a Settlement Class Member and do nothing, you will not get any benefits from this settlement. And, unless you exclude yourself, you will not be able to start a lawsuit or be part of any other lawsuit against Home Depot about the claims resolved by this settlement, ever again.

24. How do I get more information?

This notice summarizes the settlement. More details are in the Settlement Agreement itself. You can get a copy of the Settlement Agreement at www._____.com or from the Settlement Administrator by calling toll-free _____ or writing to Settlement Administrator at XXXXXXXXXX. The status of the settlement, any appeals, any claims made, and the date of payments will be posted on the Settlement Website.

[PROPOSED] ORDER CERTIFYING A SETTLEMENT CLASS, PRELIMINARILY APPROVING CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND DIRECTING NOTICE TO THE SETTLEMENT CLASS

This matter came before the Court on Consumer Plaintiffs’ Motion for Certification of Settlement Class and Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement.

Consumer Plaintiffs filed their Consolidated Class Action Complaint (ECF No. 93) on May 1, 2015 (“Complaint”). In their Complaint, Consumer Plaintiffs allege various claims against Defendants Home Depot U.S.A., Inc. and The Home Depot, Inc. (collectively, “Home Depot”) arising out of the breach of Home Depot’s payment data systems that Home Depot first announced in September 2014, including claims alleging violations of state consumer laws and state data breach statutes, negligence, breach of implied contract, unjust enrichment, and declaratory judgment claims. Following briefing on Home Depot’s motion to dismiss, the Court heard oral argument on that motion, which presently is under advisement.

Plaintiffs' counsel have conducted a thorough examination, investigation, and evaluation of the relevant law, facts and allegations sufficient to assess the merits of the claims and Home Depot's liability and defenses in the Consumer Actions. Consumer Plaintiffs, by Consumer Plaintiffs' co-lead and liaison Counsel, and Home Depot, by Home Depot's Counsel, have entered into a Settlement Agreement following good faith, arm's-length negotiations and mediation overseen by Jonathan B. Marks of MarksADR, LLC, in which the Parties have agreed to settle the Consumer Actions consolidated for pre-trial purposes in this MDL proceeding, pursuant to the terms of the Settlement, and subject to the approval and determination of the Court as to the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the Settlement which, if approved, will result in dismissal of the Consumer Actions with prejudice.

The Court having reviewed the Settlement Agreement and Release, including the exhibits attached thereto (together, the "Settlement Agreement" or "Settlement"), and all prior proceedings herein, and good cause appearing based on the record,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. Class Certification for Settlement Purposes Only. The Settlement Agreement provides for a Settlement Class defined as follows:

All residents of the United States whose Personal Information was compromised as a result of the Data Breach first disclosed by Home Depot in September 2014.

“Personal Information” means payment card data including payment card account numbers, expiration dates, card verification values, and cardholder names from payment cards used at self-checkout lanes at U.S. Home Depot stores between April 10, 2014 and September 13, 2014, and/or e-mail addresses compromised as a result of the Data Breach.

Excluded from the Settlement Class is the judge presiding over this matter and any members of his judicial staff, the officers and directors of Home Depot, and persons who timely and validly request exclusion from the Settlement Class.

The Consumer Actions are provisionally certified as a class action for settlement purposes only, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(b)(3) and (e). The Court finds for settlement purposes that: (a) the Settlement Class is so numerous that joinder of all Settlement Class Members would be impracticable; (b) there are issues of law and fact common to the Settlement Class; (c) the claims of the Settlement Class Representatives are typical of and arise from the same operative facts and seek similar relief as the claims of the Settlement Class Members; (d) the Settlement Class Representatives and Settlement Class Counsel will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Settlement Class as the Settlement Class Representatives have no interest antagonistic to or in conflict with the Settlement Class and have retained experienced and competent counsel to prosecute this matter on behalf of the Settlement Class; (e) questions of law or fact common to Settlement Class Members predominate over any questions affecting only individual members; and (f) a class action and class settlement is superior to other methods available for a fair and efficient resolution of this controversy.

2. Settlement Class Representatives and Settlement Class Counsel.

Class Members identified in Exhibit A attached to the Settlement Agreement are designated and appointed as the Settlement Class Representatives. The Court finds that the Settlement Class Representatives are similarly situated to absent Class Members and therefore typical of the Class and that they will be adequate Settlement Class Representatives.

The Court finds that the following counsel, previously appointed by the Court as interim co-lead or liaison counsel, are experienced and adequate counsel and are hereby designated as Settlement Class Counsel pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(g): Norman E. Siegel and Barrett J. Vahle, Stueve Siegel Hanson LLP; Roy E. Barnes and John R. Bevis, The Barnes Law Group, LLC; David J. Worley and James M. Evangelista, Harris Penn Lowry, LLP; and John A. Yanchunis, Sr., Morgan & Morgan Complex Litigation Group.

3. Preliminary Settlement Approval. Upon preliminary review, the Court finds that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate to warrant providing notice of the Settlement to the Class and accordingly is preliminarily approved.

4. Jurisdiction. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 332(d)(2), and personal jurisdiction over the Parties before it. Additionally, venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(a).

5. Final Approval Hearing. A Final Approval Hearing shall be held on _____, 2016 at _____ in Courtroom 2108 of the Richard B. Russell Federal Building and United States Courthouse, 75 Ted Turner Dr., SW, Atlanta, Georgia 30303-3309, to determine, among other things, whether: (a) this matter should be finally certified as a class action for settlement purposes pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3) and (e); (b) the Settlement should be approved as fair, reasonable and adequate, and finally approved pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e); (c) the Consumer Actions should be dismissed with prejudice pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement; (d) Settlement Class Members should be bound by the releases set forth in the Settlement Agreement; (e) the application of Settlement Class Counsel for an award of attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses (the "Fee Request") should be approved pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(h); and (f) the application of Settlement Class Representatives for Service Awards (the "Service Awards Request") should be approved.

Plaintiffs' motion for final approval of the Settlement, Service Awards Request, and Fee Request shall be filed with the Court at least 21 days prior to the deadline for submission of objections specified in the Notice. By no later than 14 days prior to the Final Approval Hearing, the Parties shall file responses, if any, to any objections, and any replies in support of final approval of the Settlement and/or the Service Awards Request and Fee Request.

6. Administration. The Court appoints KCC Class Action Services, LLC as the Settlement Administrator, with responsibility for class notice and claims administration. Home Depot shall pay all costs and expenses associated with providing notice to Settlement Class Members including, but not limited to, the Settlement Administrator's fees. These payments shall be made separate and apart from the Settlement Fund, subject to the Distribution of Remaining Funds provisions set forth in Paragraph 36 of the Settlement Agreement.

7. Notice to the Class. The proposed Notice Program set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and the Notice, Publication Notice, Claim Form, and Notice Plan attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibits C, D, E, and G satisfy the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B) and (e)(1) and are hereby approved. Non-material modifications to these Exhibits may be made without further order of the Court. The Settlement Administrator is directed to carry out the Notice Program in conformance with the Settlement Agreement, including but not limited to sections VIII and IX thereof.

By May 2, 2016 (the “Notice Deadline”), the Settlement Administrator shall complete in the manner set forth in section IX of the Settlement Agreement the E-Mail and Mail Notice Program, Publication Notice, and posting of Notice on the Settlement Website.

Within 7 days after the Notice Deadline, the Settlement Administrator shall provide Settlement Class Counsel and Home Depot with one or more affidavits confirming that the E-mail Notice and Mail Notice Program, Publication Notice, and posting of Notice on the Settlement Website were completed in accordance with the Parties’ instructions and the Court’s approval. Settlement Class Counsel shall file such affidavit(s) with the Court as an exhibit to or in conjunction with Settlement Class Representatives’ motion for final approval of the Settlement.

8. Findings Concerning Notice. The Court finds that the form, content and method of giving notice to the Class as described in Paragraph 7 of this Order and the Settlement Agreement (including the exhibits thereto): (a) will constitute the best practicable notice to the Settlement Class; (b) are reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Settlement Class Members of the pendency of the action, the terms of the proposed settlement, and their rights under the proposed settlement, including but not limited to their rights to object to or exclude themselves from the proposed settlement and other rights under the terms of the Settlement Agreement; (c) are reasonable and constitute due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all Class Members and other persons entitled to receive notice; and (d) meet all applicable requirements of law, including Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c) and (e), and the Due Process Clause(s) of the United States Constitution. The Court further finds that the Notice is written in plain language, uses simple terminology, and is designed to be readily understandable by Class Members.

9. Appointment for Identity Guard Monitoring Services. The Court appoints Identity Guard, a subsidiary of Intersections, Inc., as the provider of monitoring services to eligible Settlement Class Members as set forth in the Settlement Agreement. The Court directs that Identity Guard effectuate the Settlement Agreement in coordination with Settlement Class Counsel, Home Depot, and the Settlement Administrator, subject to the jurisdiction and oversight of this Court.

10. Class Action Fairness Act Notice. Within 10 days after the filing of the motion for preliminary approval, Home Depot shall serve or cause to be served a notice of the proposed Settlement on appropriate state officials in accordance with the requirements under the Class Action Fairness Act (“CAFA”), 28 U.S.C. § 1715(b).

11. Exclusion from Class. Any Settlement Class Member who wishes to be excluded from the Settlement Class must mail a written notification of the intent to exclude himself or herself from the Settlement Class to the Settlement Administrator at the address provided in the Notice, postmarked no later than July 18, 2016 (the “Opt-Out Deadline”). The written notification must include the individual’s name and address; a statement that he or she wants to be excluded from the Consumer Action; and the individual’s signature.

The Settlement Administrator shall provide the Parties with copies of all completed opt-out notifications, and a final list of all who have timely and validly excluded themselves from the Settlement Class, which Settlement Class Counsel may move to file under seal with the Court no later than 10 days prior to the Final Approval Hearing.

Any Settlement Class Member who does not timely and validly exclude herself or himself from the Settlement shall be bound by the terms of the Settlement. If Final Judgment is entered, any Settlement Class Member who has not submitted a timely, valid written notice of exclusion from the Settlement Class shall be bound by all subsequent proceedings, orders and judgments in this matter, including but not limited to the Release set forth in the Final Judgment, including Settlement Class Members who have previously initiated or who subsequently initiate any litigation against any or all of the Released Parties relating to the claims and transactions released in the Settlement Agreement. All Class Members who submit valid and timely notices of exclusion from the Settlement Class shall not be entitled to receive any benefits of the Settlement.

12. Objections and Appearances. A Settlement Class Member who complies with the requirements of this paragraph may object to the Settlement, the Service Awards Request, or the Fee Request.

No Settlement Class Member shall be heard, and no papers, briefs, pleadings, or other documents submitted by any Settlement Class Member shall be received and considered by the Court, unless the objection is (a) electronically filed with the Court by the Objection Deadline; or (b) mailed first-class postage prepaid to the Clerk of Court, Class Counsel, and Home Depot's Counsel, at the addresses listed in the Notice, and postmarked by no later than the Objection Deadline, as specified in the Notice. For an objection to be considered by the Court, the objection must also set forth:

- (a) the name of the Consumer Action;
- (b) the objector's full name, address, email address, and telephone number;
- (c) an explanation of the basis upon which the objector claims to be a Settlement Class Member;
- (d) all grounds for the objection, accompanied by any legal support for the objection;

(e) the identity of all counsel who represent the objector, including any former or current counsel who may be entitled to compensation for any reason related to the objection to the Settlement, the Service Awards Request, or the Fee Request;

(f) the identity of all counsel representing the objector who will appear at the Final Approval Hearing;

(g) the number of times in which the objector has objected to a class action settlement within the five years preceding the date that the objector files the objection, the caption of each case in which the objector has made such objection, and a copy of any orders related to or ruling upon the objector's prior such objections that were issued by the trial and appellate courts in each listed case;

(h) the number of times in which the objector's counsel and/or counsel's law firm have objected to a class action settlement within the five years preceding the date that the objector files the objection, the caption of each case in which the counsel or the firm has made such objection, and a copy of any orders related to or ruling upon counsel's or the firm's prior such objections that were issued by the trial and appellate courts in each listed case;

(i) any and all agreements that relate to the objection or the process of objecting, whether written or verbal, between objector or objector's counsel and any other person or entity;

(j) a list of any persons who will be called to testify at the Final Approval Hearing in support of the objection;

(k) any evidence or other information the objector wishes to introduce in support of the objection;

(l) a statement confirming whether the objector intends to personally appear and/or testify at the Final Approval Hearing; and

(m) the objector's signature on the written objection (an attorney's signature is not sufficient).

Any Settlement Class Member filing an objection may be required to sit for a deposition regarding matters concerning the objection. Any Settlement Class Member who fails to comply with the provisions in this Paragraph may waive and forfeit any and all rights he or she may have to object, and shall be bound by all the terms of the Settlement Agreement, this Order, and by all proceedings, orders, and judgments, including, but not limited to, the Release in the Settlement Agreement if Final Judgment is entered.

Any Settlement Class Member, including a Settlement Class Member who files and serves a written objection, as described above, may appear at the Final Approval Hearing, either in person or through counsel hired at the Settlement Class Member's expense, to object to or comment on the fairness, reasonableness, or adequacy of the Settlement, the Service Awards Request, or the Fee Request.

If Final Judgment is entered, any Settlement Class Member who fails to object in the manner prescribed herein shall be deemed to have waived his or her objections and shall be forever barred from making any such objections in the Consumer Actions or in any other proceeding or from challenging or opposing, or seeking to reverse, vacate, or modify any approval of the Settlement Agreement, the Service Awards Request, or the Fee Request.

13. Claims Process and Distribution and Allocation Plan. Settlement Class Representatives and Home Depot have created a process for assessing and determining the validity and value of claims and a payment methodology to Settlement Class Members who submit a timely, valid claim form. The Court preliminarily approves the Distribution and Allocation Plan substantially in the form attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit B, and directs that the Settlement Administrator effectuate the Distribution and Allocation Plan according to the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

Settlement Class Members who qualify for and wish to submit a claim form shall do so in accordance with the requirements and procedures specified in the Notice and the Claim Form. If Final Judgment is entered, all Settlement Class Members who qualify for any benefit under the Settlement but fail to submit a claim in accordance with the requirements and procedures specified in the Notice and the claim form shall be forever barred from receiving any such benefit, but will in all other respects be subject to and bound by the provisions in the Settlement Agreement, the Release included in that Agreement, and the Final Judgment.

14. Termination of Settlement. This Order shall become null and void and shall be without prejudice to the rights of the Parties, all of whom shall be restored to their respective positions existing immediately before this Court entered this Order, if the Settlement is not finally approved by the Court or is terminated in accordance with section XIII of the Settlement Agreement. In such event, the Settlement and Settlement Agreement shall become null and void and be of no further force and effect, and neither the Settlement Agreement nor the Court's orders, including this Order, relating to the Settlement shall be used or referred to for any purpose whatsoever.

15. Use of Order. This Order shall be of no force or effect if Final Judgment is not entered or there is no Effective Date and shall not be construed or used as an admission, concession, or declaration by or against Home Depot of any fault, wrongdoing, breach, or liability. Nor shall this Order be construed or used as an admission, concession, or declaration by or against any Settlement Class Representative or any other Settlement Class Member that his or her claims lack merit or that the relief requested is inappropriate, improper, unavailable, or as a waiver by any Party of any defense or claims he, she, or it may have in this litigation or in any other lawsuit.

16. Stay of Proceedings. Except as necessary to effectuate this Order, the Consumer Actions and all deadlines set by the Court in the Consumer Actions are stayed and suspended pending the Final Approval Hearing and issuance of the Final Judgment, or until further order of this Court.

17. Continuance of Hearing. The Court reserves the right to adjourn or continue the Final Approval Hearing and related deadlines without further written notice to the Class. If the Court alters any of those dates or times, the revised dates and times shall be posted on the website maintained by the Settlement Administrator.

Attachment A – Legal Notice c.v.

Legal Notification Services

KCC's Legal Notice experts, Gina M. Intrepido-Bowden and Carla A. Peak, specialize in the design and implementation of class action notice programs devised to reach class members with clear, concise, plain language notices. With over a decade of legal notice consulting experience, Ms. Intrepido-Bowden and Ms. Peak have been directly responsible for more than 100 effective and efficient notice programs, including some of the largest and most complex in history, reaching class members or claimants around the globe and providing notice in over 35 languages.

Their programs satisfy due process requirements, as well as all applicable state and federal laws. Judges, including in published decisions, have recognized the reach calculation methodology and notice design strategies they use. Their notices follow the principles in the Federal Judicial Center's (FJC) illustrative model notices, which were written and designed to embody the satisfaction of the plain language requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2).

Our Experts

Consistent with the judicial standards set forth by Daubert and Kumho and as illustrated in the FJC's Judges' Class Action Notice and Claims Process Checklist and Plain Language Guide, KCC's experts utilize the same practices and statistical analyses that are relied upon in the advertising industry when they design and measure the effectiveness of the notice programs they develop. Gina M. Intrepido-Bowden and Carla A. Peak have personally designed the "Notice Plan" (Plan) and proposed notice documents (Notice or Notices) that follow, and will directly oversee its implementation.

Gina Intrepido-Bowden

With 25 years of media research, planning and buying experience, Gina M. Intrepido-Bowden brings substantive expertise to her role as VP, Legal Notification Services. A leading expert, she is responsible for the design and implementation of evidence-based legal notice campaigns.

Gina has designed more than 90 judicially approved media campaigns across the United States and Canada for antitrust, consumer and other class action matters. As a legal notice expert, she provides Courts with the reach evidence they need to determine the adequacy of notice. In addition, she has successfully critiqued other notice plans, causing Courts to modify programs to better meet due process obligations.

She began her advertising career working for one of New York's largest advertising agency media departments. Gina is a frequent author and speaker on class notice issues including effective reach, notice dissemination as well as noticing trends and innovations. She earned a Bachelor of Arts in Advertising from Penn State University, graduating summa cum laude.

Carla Peak

With over a decade of industry experience, Carla A. Peak, also VP, Legal Notification Services, specializes in the design of plain language legal notice documents to effectively address the challenges of communicating complex information to class members in a manner that they can understand.

Carla's notices satisfy the plain language requirements of Rule 23 and adhere to the guidelines set forth in the Manual for Complex Litigation, Fourth and by the Federal Judicial Center (FJC), as well as applicable state laws. She has successfully provided notice in both U.S. and international markets including communications in more than 35 languages.

She has presented on and written numerous articles about class notification programs, the design of effective notice documents as well as industry trends and innovations. Carla holds a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology from Temple University, graduating cum laude.

Relevant Case Experience¹

Our experts have designed and implemented numerous notice programs targeting Consumer Class members, for example:

- Honorable Mitchell D. Dembin, Lermin v. Schiff Nutrition International, Inc., (November 3, 2015) No. 3:11-CV-01056 (S.D. Cal.):
 - According to Ms. Intrepido-Bowen, between June 29, 2015, and August 2, 2015, consumer publications are estimated to have reached 53.9% of likely Class Members and internet publications are estimated to have reached 58.9% of likely Class Members... The Court finds this notice (i) constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, (ii) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise the putative Class Members of the pendency of the action, and of their right to object and to appear at the Final Approval Hearing or to exclude themselves from the Settlement, (iii) was reasonable and constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to be provided with notice, and (iv) fully complied with due process principles and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23.
- Honorable Sara I. Ellis, Thomas v. Lennox Industries Inc., (July 9, 2015) No. 1:13-CV-07747 (N.D. Ill.):
 - The Court approves the form and content of the Long-Form Notice, Summary Notice, Postcard Notice, Dealer Notice, and Internet Banners (the “Notices”) attached as Exhibits A-1, A-2, A-3, A-4 and A-5 respectively to the Settlement Agreement. The Court finds that the Notice Plan, included in the Settlement Agreement and the Declaration of Gina M. Intrepido-Bowden on Settlement Notice Plan and Notice Documents, constitutes the best practicable notice under the circumstances as well as valid, due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled thereto, and that the Notice Plan complies fully with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and provides Settlement Class Members due process under the United States Constitution.
- Honorable José L. Linares, Demmick v. Cellco Partnership, (May 1, 2015) No. 2:06-CV-2163 (D. N.J.):
 - The Notice Plan, which this Court has already approved, was timely and properly executed and that it provided the best notice practicable, as required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, and met the “desire to actually inform” due process communications standard of Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306 (1950)... The Court thus affirms its finding and conclusion in the November 19, 2014 Preliminary Approval Order that the notice in this case meets the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Due Process Clause of the United States and/or any other applicable law. All objections submitted which make mention of notice have been considered and, in light of the above, overruled.

Media Terms

The following provides the meaning of media terms highlighted throughout the Notice Plan:

Audience: Net number of persons or different persons exposed to a media vehicle. It is larger than a publication's circulation because it includes pass-along readers who may obtain the publication second hand (e.g., from a reception room, neighbor, friend).

Circulation: Total number of publication copies sold through all channels of distribution (e.g., subscriptions, newsstand, bulk).

Frequency: Estimated average number of times a population group is exposed to a media vehicle or combination of media vehicles containing a notice within a given period of time.

Impressions or Exposures: Total number of opportunities to be exposed to a media vehicle or combination of media vehicles containing a notice. It is a gross or cumulative number that may include the same person more than once. Impressions can exceed the population size.

Reach or Coverage: Net percentage of a specific population group exposed to a media vehicle or a combination of media vehicles containing a notice at least once within a given period of time. Reach factors out duplication, representing the total different/net persons.

Selectivity Index: Shows the concentration of a specific population group relative to the general adult population. For example, a publication selectivity index of 175 among men indicates that the publication's readers are 75% more likely to be men as compared to the general adult population.

Media Resources

The resources we use to quantify our plan approach include the same resources used by media professionals to guide the billions of dollars of advertising we see today:

Alliance for Audited Media (AAM)

AAM is a nonprofit organization that connects North America's leading media companies, advertisers and ad agencies. Founded in 1914 as the Audit Bureau of Circulations, the AAM is the preeminent source of cross-media verification and information services, providing standards, audit services and data critical to the advertising industry. The organization independently verifies print and digital circulation, mobile apps, website analytics, social media, technology platforms and audience information for newspapers, magazines and digital media companies in the U.S. and Canada.

GfK Mediamark Research & Intelligence, LLC (MRI)

MRI is a nationally accredited research firm that provides consumer demographics, product and brand usage, and audience/exposure in all forms of advertising media. Established in 1979, MRI measures the usage of nearly 6,000 product and service brands across 550 categories, along with the readership of hundreds of magazines and newspapers, internet usage, television viewership, national and local radio listening, yellow page usage, and out-of-home exposure. Based on a yearly face-to-face interview of 26,000 consumers in their homes, MRI's Survey of the American Consumer™ is the primary source of audience data for the U.S. consumer magazine industry and the most comprehensive and reliable source of multi-media audience data available.

Nielsen Media Research (Nielsen)

Nielsen is the leading provider of television audience measurement and advertising information services worldwide.

Telmar

Telmar is the world-leading supplier of computer based advertising media information services. Its software provides for survey analysis, data integration, media planning and optimization. With over 5,000 users in 85 countries, Telmar's clients include many of the world's leading advertising agencies, publishers, broadcasters and advertisers.

Program Overview

Objective

To design a notice program that will effectively reach Class members and capture their attention with notices communicated in clear, concise, plain language so that their rights and options may be fully understood. The FJC's Judges' Class Action Notice and Claims Process Checklist and Plain Language Guide considers 70-95% reach among class members reasonable.

Class Definition

The Class (or Class members) consists of all residents of the United States whose Personal Information was compromised as a result of the Data Breach first disclosed by Home Depot in September 2014.

Case Analysis

The following known factors were considered when determining our recommendation:

1. The Settlement Class consists of approximately 40 million Class members who made credit or debit card purchases in Home Depot's U.S. stores from April 10 to September 13, 2014 ("POS Incident Class members"), and 53 million are who had their email compromised through the theft of a separate email file ("E-Mail File Incident Class members"). There is likely some Class member overlap between the two categories but for planning purposes, we assumed an overlap did not exist.
2. Class members are located throughout the U.S., including large cities and rural areas.
3. Contact information is available for at least 19.9 million POS Incident Class members and 53 million E-Mail File Incident Class members; however, a reasonable effort cannot identify and locate all Class members.
4. Effective reach and notice content is vital to convey the importance of the information affecting Class members' rights, as well as to withstand challenge and collateral review.

Target Audience

To verify the program's effectiveness, MRI data was studied among adults who have used any credit/debit card in the last 12 months and who have shopped at the Home Depot in the last 12 months ("Credit/Debit Card Home Depot Shoppers"), because this broad, over inclusive target group indicates and best represents the Class.

Strategies

The Notice Plan utilizes individual notice to reach the Class. The individual notice effort will be supplemented by paid notice in a well-read consumer magazine (People) and on a variety of websites.

Plan Delivery

The individual notice effort is expected to reach 74.5% of the Class. The notice placements in People magazine and on a variety of websites will increase the overall reach to 80.2%, exposing notice to likely Class members on average 1.2 times each.

Target Analysis

Knowing the characteristics, interests, and habits of a target group aids in the media selection process.

The general concept of a CBSA is that of a core area containing a substantial population nucleus, together with adjacent communities having a high degree of economic and social integration with that core. CBSAs are defined by the U.S. Office of Management and Budget to provide a nationally consistent set of geographic entities for the United States and Puerto Rico for use in tabulating and presenting statistical data. "B" counties are counties not defined as A counties that have more than 85,000 households. The combined counties contain 30% of United States households. The combined counties contain 15% of United States households. "D" counties are all counties not classified as A, B, or C counties. They are considered very rural. Media Selection

To create the optimal notice program, we evaluated the strengths and weaknesses of the various media, as well as their reach and frequency potential, composition, format/content and efficiencies. Our recommended media mix provides:

- Broad national coverage into the largest cities as well as the smallest towns throughout the nation;
- Repeat notice exposures as a result of the overlapping media audiences;
- A written summary of key information that may be easily referred to or passed on to others as a result of the placement in People magazine, one of the largest and most well-read publications in the country;
- A direct link to the case website through the email notice and internet banner notices;
- Easy access to the notice documents through an established case website.

Individual/Direct Notice

E-Mail Notice

- An E-Mail Notice containing a summary of the settlement in the body of the email, as well as a link to the settlement website will be sent to all available email addresses.

To the extent differences exist between the two, the Notice Program set forth and approved herein shall prevail over that found in the April 24, 2015 Order.

Honorable José L. Linares, Demmick v. Cellco Partnership, (May 1, 2015) No. 2:06-CV-2163 (D. N.J.):

The Notice Plan, which this Court has already approved, was timely and properly executed and that it provided the best notice practicable, as required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, and met the “desire to actually inform” due process communications standard of Mullane v. The Court thus affirms its finding and conclusion in the November 19, 2014 Preliminary Approval Order that the notice in this case meets the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Due Process Clause of the United States and/or any other applicable law. All objections submitted which make mention of notice have been considered and, in light of the above, overruled.

Honorable Rhonda A. Isiran Nishimura, Charles v. Haskeo Homes, Inc., (February 24, 2015) No. 09-1-1932-08 (Cir. Ct. Hawai‘i):

The Court approves, as to form and content, the Hurricane Straps Class Notice and the Hurricane Straps Repose Subclass Notice, and the Notice Plan that are attached as Exhibits 8-9 to the Declaration of Graham B. LippSmith ("LippSmith Dec.") and in the Declaration of Carla Peak...The Court finds that the Hurricane Straps Class Notice, the Hurricane Straps Repose Subclass Notice, and the Notice Plan will fully and accurately inform the potential Hurricane Straps Class Members and Hurricane Straps Repose Subclass Members of all material elements of the proposed Settlement, of their right to be excluded from the Hurricane Straps Class or Hurricane Straps Repose Subclass, and of each Hurricane Straps Class Member's or Hurricane Straps Repose Subclass Member's right and opportunity to object to the proposed Settlement. The Court further finds that the mailing and distribution of the Hurricane Straps Class Notice and the Hurricane Straps Repose Subclass Notice will (i) meet the requirements of the laws of the State of Hawai'i (including Haw. R. Civ. P. 23), the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), the Rules of the Court, and any other applicable law, (ii) constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and (iii) constitute due and sufficient notice to all potential Hurricane Straps Class Members and Hurricane Straps Repose Subclass Members.

Honorable Gary W.B. Chang, Kai v. Haskeo Homes, Inc., (February 15, 2015) No. 09-1-2834-12 (Cir. Ct. Hawai'i):

The Court approves, as to form and content, the PEX Class Notice and Notice Plan attached as Exhibit 10 to the Declaration of Graham B. LippSmith ("LippSmith Dec.") and in the Declaration of Carla Peak. The Court finds that the PEX Class Notice and the Notice Plan will fully and accurately inform the potential PEX Class Members of all material elements of the proposed Settlement, of their right to be excluded from the PEX Class, and of each PEX Class Member's right and opportunity to object to the proposed Settlement. The Court further finds that the mailing and distribution of the PEX Class Notice substantially in the manner and form set forth in this Order will (i) meet the requirements of the laws of the State of Hawai'i (including Haw. R. Civ. P. 23), the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), the Rules of the Court, and any other applicable law, (ii) constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and (iii) constitute due and sufficient notice to all potential Class Members.

Honorable David O. Carter, Cobb v. BSH Home Appliances Corp., (December 29, 2014) No. 8:10-CV-0711 (C.D. Cal.):

The Notice Program complies with Rule 23(c)(2)(B) because it constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances, provides individual notice to all Class Members who can be identified through reasonable effort, and is reasonably calculated under the circumstances to apprise the Class Members of the nature of the action, the claims it asserts, the Class definition, the Settlement terms, the right to appear through an attorney, the right to opt out of the Class or to comment on or object to the Settlement (and how to do so), and the binding effect of a final judgment upon Class Members who do not opt out.

Honorable José L. Linares, Demmick v. Cellco Partnership, (November 19, 2014) No. 2:06-CV-2163 (D. N.J.):

The Court finds that the Parties' plan for providing Notice to the Settlement Classes as described in Article V of the Settlement Agreement and as detailed in the Settlement Notice Plan attached to the Declaration of Gina M. Intrepido-Bowden: (a) constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances of this Action; (b) constitutes due and sufficient notice to the Settlement Classes of the pendency of the Action, certification of the Settlement Classes, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, and the Final Approval Hearing; and (c) complies fully with the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution, and any other applicable law.

The Court further finds that the Parties' plan for providing Notice to the Settlement Classes as described in Article V of the Settlement Agreement and as detailed in the Settlement Notice Plan attached to the Declaration of Gina M. Intrepido-Bowden, will adequately inform members of the Settlement Classes of their right to exclude themselves from the Settlement Classes so as to not be bound by the Settlement Agreement.

Honorable Christina A. Snyder, Roberts v. Electrolux Home Products, Inc., (September 11, 2014) No. 8:12-CV-01644 (C.D. Cal.):

The Court considered the Settlement Notice Plan submitted by the parties, and the Declaration of Carla A. Peak of KCC describing the Notice Plan...The Court finds that the Notice itself is appropriate, and complies with Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3), 23(c)(2)(B), and 23(e), because the Settlement Notice, FAQ, and Publication Notice fairly, accurately, and reasonably informed members of the Settlement Class, in plain language, of (1) appropriate information about the nature of this litigation and the essential terms of the Settlement Agreement; (2) appropriate information about, and means for obtaining, additional information regarding this litigation and the Settlement Agreement; (3) appropriate information about, and means for obtaining and submitting, a Claim Form; (4) appropriate information about the right of members of the Settlement Class to exclude themselves from the Settlement, object to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, including Class Counsel's request for an award of attorneys' fees and costs, and the procedures to do so; and (5) appropriate information about the consequences of failing to submit a Claim Form or failing to comply with the procedures and the deadline for opting out of, or objecting to, the Settlement...Accordingly, the Court hereby finds and concludes that members of the Settlement Class have been provided the best notice practicable of the Settlement and that such notice satisfies all requirements of federal and California laws and due process. The Court finally approves the Notice Plan in all respects...Any objections to the notice provided to the Class are hereby overruled.

Honorable David O. Carter, Cobb v. BSH Home Appliances Corp., (August 25, 2014) No. 8:10-CV-0711 (C.D. Cal.):

...the Court also finding that the proposed notice plan and forms of notice are the best notice practicable under the circumstances and satisfy all requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, including Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(b)(2); and for good cause shown, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiffs' Motion to Amend the Illinois Class Definition is GRANTED; and it is further ORDERED that Plaintiffs' Motion for Approval of Notice Plan and Proposed Forms of Notice is GRANTED.

Judge Gregory A. Presnell, Poertner v. The Gillette Co. and The Procter & Gamble Co., (August 21, 2014) No. 6:12-CV-00803 (M.D. Fla.):

This Court has again reviewed the Notice and the accompanying documents and finds that the "best practicable" notice was given to the Class and that the Notice was "reasonably calculated" to (a) describe the Action and the Plaintiff's and Class Members' rights in it; and (b) apprise interested parties of the pendency of the Action and of their right to have their objections to the Settlement heard. See Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts, 472 U.S. 797, 810 (1985). This Court further finds that Class Members were given a reasonable opportunity to opt out of the Action and that they were adequately represented by Plaintiff Joshua D. Poertner. See Id. The Court thus reaffirms its findings that the Notice given to the Class satisfies the requirements of due process and holds that it has personal jurisdiction over all Class Members.

Honorable Curtis L. Collier, In re: Skelaxin (Metaxalone) Antitrust Litigation, (August 5, 2014) No. 1:12-md-02343 (E.D. Tenn.):

The proposed form of Notice to End-Payor Settlement Class Members of the pendency and proposed settlement of this action (“Settlement Notice”) set forth in the Notice Plan and Declaration of Carla Peak and the proposed method of dissemination of the Settlement Notice (“Notice Plan”)—first to Third-Party Payors and then to Consumers—satisfy the requirements of Rule 23(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process, are otherwise fair and reasonable, and therefore are approved.

Honorable Christina A. Snyder, Roberts v. Electrolux Home Products, Inc., (May 5, 2014) No. 8:12-CV-01644 (C.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that the Notice Plan set forth in the Settlement Agreement (§ V. of that Agreement)...is the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and constitutes sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice. The Court further preliminarily finds that the Notice itself IS appropriate, and complies with Rules 23(b)(3), 23(c)(2)(B), and 23(e) because it describes in plain language (1) the nature of the action, (2) the definition of the Settlement Class and Subclasses, (3) the class claims, issues or defenses, (4) that a class member may enter an appearance through an attorney if the member so desires, (5) that the Court will exclude from the class any member who requests exclusion, (6) the time and manner for requesting exclusion, and (7) the binding effect of a judgment on Settlement Class Members under Rule 23(c)(3) and the terms of the releases. Accordingly, the Court approves the Notice Plan in all respects...

Honorable Jose L. Linares, In re Hypodermic Products Antitrust Litigation, (March 17, 2014) MDL No. 1730, No. 2:05-CV-01602 (D. N.J.):

The Class Notice provides a description of the Indirect Purchaser Class, the procedural status of the litigation, a brief description of the plan of allocation, the court approval process for the proposed Settlement, and the significant terms of the Settlement. The Class Notice also fully informed members of the Indirect Purchaser Class of their rights with respect to the Settlement, including the right to opt out of, object to the Settlement, or otherwise be heard as to the reasonableness and fairness of the Settlement. The Class Notice also informed members of the Indirect Purchaser Class of their right to object to Indirect Purchaser Plaintiffs’ Lead Counsel’s application for an award of attorneys’ fees, an award of incentive fees, and reimbursement of expenses from the Settlement Fund....The Class Notice met the statutory requirements of notice under the circumstances, and fully satisfied the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and the requirements of due process.

Honorable William E. Smith, Cappalli v. BJ’s Wholesale Club, Inc., (December 12, 2013) No. 1:10-CV-00407 (D. R.I.):

The Court finds that the form, content, and method of dissemination of the notice given to the Settlement Class were adequate and reasonable, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The notice, as given, provided valid, due, and sufficient notice of these proceedings of the proposed Settlement, and of the terms set forth in the Stipulation and first Joint Addendum, and the notice fully satisfied the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Constitutional due process, and all other applicable laws.

Judge Gregory A. Presnell, Poertner v. The Gillette Co. and The Procter & Gamble Co.,

(November 5, 2013) No. 6:12-CV-00803 (M.D. Fla.):

The proposed Class Notice and Claim Form are approved as to form and content. The Court finds that the content of the Class Notice and the Claim Form satisfy the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2), Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(1), and due process and accordingly approves them...The Court finds that compliance with the Notice Plan is the best practicable notice under the circumstances and constitutes due and sufficient notice of this Order to all persons entitled thereto and is in full compliance with the requirements of Rule 23, applicable law, and due process.

Honorable Jose L. Linares, In re Hypodermic Products Antitrust Litigation, (November 4, 2013) No. 2:05-CV-01602 (D. N.J.):

Upon reviewing Plaintiffs' Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement, Conditional Class Certification and Approval of Notice Plan and the Declarations of Karin E. Fisch, Esq. and Carla A. Peak and the documents attached thereto, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:...Proposed forms of Notice are attached hereto as Exhibit A. The Court finds that the form fairly and adequately: (i) describes the terms and effect of the Settlement Agreement and of the Settlement; (ii) notifies the Indirect Purchaser Class concerning the proposed plan of allocation and distribution; (iii) notifies the Indirect Purchaser Plaintiffs' Lead Counsel will seek attorneys' fees not to exceed one-third of the Settlement Fund, reimbursement of expenses and incentive fees; (iv) gives notice to the Indirect Purchaser Class of the time and place of the Fairness Hearing; and (v) describes how the recipients of the Notice may submit a claim, exclude themselves from the Settlement or object to any of the relief requested.

Judge Marilyn L. Huff, Beck-Ellman v. Kaz USA, Inc., (June 11, 2013) No. 3:10-cv-02134 (S. D. Cal.):

The Notice Plan has now been implemented in accordance with the Court's Preliminary Approval Order. The Publication Notice was designed to provide potential class members with information about the Settlement and their rights, in easy-to-comprehend language... The Notice Plan was specially developed to cause class members to see the Publication Notice or see an advertisement that directed them to the Settlement Website. KCC identified that the class members belong to a demographic group known as "Pain Relief Users." The Heating Pads are considered a Pain Relief product. The publications that KCC's Notice Plan used are publications and websites whose viewers and readers include a high percentage of Pain Relief product users...The Court concludes that the Class Notice fully satisfied the requirements of Rule 23(c)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and all due process requirements.

Judge Tom A. Lucas, Stroud v. eMachines, Inc., (March 27, 2013) No. CJ-2003-968 L (D. Ct. Cleveland Cnty, Okla.):

The Notices met the requirements of Okla. Stat. tit. 12 section 2023(C), due process, and any other applicable law; constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances; and constituted due and sufficient notice to all persons and entities entitled thereto. All objections are stricken. Alternatively, considered on their merits, all objections are overruled.

Judge Marilyn L. Huff, Beck-Ellman v. Kaz USA, Inc. (January 7, 2013) No. 3:10-cv-02134 (S. D. Cal.):

The proposed Class Notice, Publication Notice, and Settlement Website are reasonably calculated to inform potential Class members of the Settlement, and are the best practicable methods under the circumstances... Notice is written in easy and clear language, and provides all needed information, including: (1) basic information about the lawsuit; (2) a description of the benefits provided by the settlement; (3) an explanation of how Class members can obtain Settlement benefits; (4) an explanation of how Class members can exercise their rights to opt-out or object; (5) an explanation that any claims against Kaz that could have been litigated in this action will be released if the Class member does not opt out; (6) the names of Class Counsel and information regarding attorneys' fees; (7) the fairness hearing date and procedure for appearing; and (8) the Settlement Website and a toll free number where additional information, including Spanish translations of all forms, can be obtained. After review of the proposed notice and Settlement Agreement, the Court concludes that the Publication Notice and Settlement Website are adequate and sufficient to inform the class members of their rights. Accordingly, the Court approves the form and manner of giving notice of the proposed settlement.

Judge Tom A. Lucas, Stroud v. eMachines, Inc., (December 21, 2012) No. CJ-2003-968 L (D. Ct. Cleveland Cnty, Okla.):

The Plan of Notice in the Settlement Agreement as well as the content of the Claim Form, Class Notice, Post-Card Notice, and Summary Notice of Settlement is hereby approved in all respects. The Court finds that the Plan of Notice and the contents of the Class Notice, Post-Card Notice and Summary Notice of Settlement and the manner of their dissemination described in the Settlement Agreement is the best practicable notice under the circumstances and is reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Putative Class Members of the pendency of this action, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, and their right to object to the Settlement Agreement or exclude themselves from the Certified Settlement Class and, therefore, the Plan of Notice, the Class Notice, Post-Card Notice and Summary Notice of Settlement are approved in all respects. The Court further finds that the Class Notice, Post-Card Notice and Summary Notice of Settlement are reasonable, that they constitute due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice, and that they meet the requirements of due process.

Honorable Michael M. Anello, Shames v. The Hertz Corporation, (November 5, 2012) No. 3:07-cv-02174 (S.D. Cal.):

...the Court is satisfied that the parties and the class administrator made reasonable efforts to reach class members. Class members who did not receive individualized notice still had opportunity for notice by publication, email, or both...The Court is satisfied that the redundancies in the parties' class notice procedure—mailing, e-mailing, and publication—reasonably ensured the widest possible dissemination of the notice...The Court OVERRULES all objections to the class settlement...

Judge Ann D. Montgomery, In Re: Uponor, Inc., F1807 Plumbing Fittings Products Liability Litigation, (July 9, 2012) No. 11-MD-2247 (D. Minn.):

The objections filed by class members are overruled; The notice provided to the class was reasonably calculated under the circumstances to apprise class members of the pendency of this action, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, and their right to object, opt out, and appear at the final fairness hearing;...

Judge Ann D. Montgomery, In Re: Uponor, Inc., F1807 Plumbing Fittings Products Liability Litigation, (June 29, 2012) No. 11-MD-2247 (D. Minn.):

After the preliminary approval of the Settlement, the parties carried out the notice program, hiring an experienced consulting firm to design and implement the plan. The plan consisted of direct mail notices to known owners and warranty claimants of the RTI F1807 system, direct mail notices to potential holders of subrogation interests through insurance company mailings, notice publications in leading consumer magazines which target home and property owners, and earned media efforts through national press releases and the Settlement website. The plan was intended to, and did in fact, reach a minimum of 70% of potential class members, on average more than two notices each...The California Objectors also take umbrage with the notice provided the class. Specifically, they argue that the class notice fails to advise class members of the true nature of the aforementioned release. This argument does not float, given that the release is clearly set forth in the Settlement and the published notices satisfy the requirements of Rule 23(c)(2)(B) by providing information regarding: (1) the nature of the action class membership; (2) class claims, issues, and defenses; (3) the ability to enter an appearance through an attorney; (4) the procedure and ability to opt-out or object; (5) the process and instructions to make a claim; (6) the binding effect of the class judgment; and (7) the specifics of the final fairness hearing.

Honorable Michael M. Anello, Shames v. The Hertz Corporation, (May 22, 2012) No. 3:07-cv-02174 (S.D. Cal.):

The Court approves, as to form and content, the Notice of Proposed Settlement of Class Action, substantially in the forms of Exhibits A-1 through A-6, as appropriate, (individually or collectively, the "Notice"), and finds that the e-mailing or mailing and distribution of the Notice and publishing of the Notice substantially in the manner and form set forth in ¶ 7 of this Order meet the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and due process, and is the best notice practicable under the circumstances and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to all Persons entitled thereto.

Judge Anthony Powell, Molina v. Intrust Bank, N.A., (May 21, 2012) No. 10-CV-3686 (18th J.D. Ct., Kan.):

The form, content, and method of dissemination of Class Notice given to the Class were adequate and reasonable, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice, as given, provided valid, due, and sufficient notice of the proposed settlement, the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and these proceeding to all persons entitled to such notice, and said notice fully satisfied the requirements of K.S.A. § 60-223 and due process.

Judge Ronald L. Bauer, Blue Cross of California Website Securities Litigation, (April 5, 2012) No. JCCP 4647 (Super. Ct. Cal.):

The form, content, and method of dissemination of the notice given to the Settlement Class were adequate and reasonable, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The notice, as given, provided valid, due, and sufficient notice of the proposed settlement, the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and these proceedings to all Person entitled to such notice, and said notice satisfied the requirements of California Rules of Court, Rule 3,766(e) and (f), and due process.

Judge Ann D. Montgomery, In Re: Uponor, Inc., F1807 Plumbing Fittings Products Liability Litigation, (January 18, 2012) No. 11-MD-2247 (D. Minn.):

The Notice Plan detailed by KCC in the Affidavit of Gina M. Intrepido-Bowden provides the best notice practicable under the circumstances and constitutes due and sufficient notice of the Settlement Agreement and the Final Fairness Hearing to the Classes and all persons entitled to receive such notice as potential members of the Class...The Notice Plan's multi-faceted approach to providing notice to Class Members whose identity is not known to the Settling Parties constitutes 'the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances' consistent with Rule 23(c)(2)(B)...Notice to Class members must clearly and concisely state the nature of the lawsuit and its claims and defenses, the Class certified, the Class member's right to appear through an attorney or opt out of the Class, the time and manner for opting out, and the binding effect of a class judgment on members of the Class. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B). Compliance with Rule 23's notice requirements also complies with Due Process requirements. 'The combination of reasonable notice, the opportunity to be heard, and the opportunity to withdraw from the class satisfy due process requirements of the Fifth Amendment.' Prudential, 148 F.3d at 306. The proposed notices in the present case meet those requirements.

Judge Jeffrey Goering, Molina v. Intrust Bank, N.A., (January 17, 2012) No. 10-CV-3686 (18th J.D. Ct. Ks.):

The Court approved the form and content of the Class Notice, and finds that transmission of the Notice as proposed by the Parties meets the requirements of due process and Kansas law, is the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and constitutes due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled thereto.

Judge Charles E. Atwell, Allen v. UMB Bank, N.A., (October 31, 2011) No. 1016-CV34791 (Cir. Ct. Mo.):

The form, content, and method of dissemination of Class Notice given to the Class were adequate and reasonable, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice, as given, provided valid, due, and sufficient notice of the proposed settlement, the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and these proceedings to all persons entitled to such notice, and said notice fully satisfied the requirements of Rule 52.08 of the Missouri Rules of Civil Procedure and due process.

Judge Charles E. Atwell, Allen v. UMB Bank, N.A., (June 27, 2011) No. 1016-CV34791 (Cir. Ct. Mo.):

The Court approves the form and content of the Class Notice, and finds that transmission of the Notice as proposed by the Parties meets the requirements of due process and Missouri law, is the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and constitutes due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled thereto.

Judge Jeremy Fogel, Ko v. Natura Pet Products, Inc., (June 24, 2011) No. 5:09cv2619 (N.D. Cal.):

The Court approves, as to form and content, the Long Form Notice of Pendency and Settlement of Class Action ("Long Form Notice"), and the Summary Notice attached as Exhibits to the Settlement Agreement, and finds that the e-mailing of the Summary Notice, and posting on the dedicated internet website of the Long Form Notice, mailing of the Summary Notice post-card, and newspaper and magazine publication of the Summary Notice substantially in the manner as set forth in this Order meets the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and due process, and is the best notice practicable under the circumstances and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice.

Judge M. Joseph Tiemann, Billieson v. City of New Orleans, (May 27, 2011) No. 94-19231

(Civ. D. Ct. La.):

The plan to disseminate notice for the Insurance Settlements (the "Insurance Settlements Notice Plan") which was designed at the request of Class Counsel by experienced Notice Professionals Gina Intrepido-Bowden and Carla A. Peak... IT IS ORDERED as follows: 1. The Insurance Settlements Notice Plan is hereby approved and shall be executed by the Notice Administrator; 2. The Insurance Settlements Notice Documents, substantially in the form included in the Insurance Settlements Notice Plan, are hereby approved.

Judge James Robertson, In re Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Data Theft Litig., (February 11, 2009) MDL No. 1796 (D.C.):

The Court approves the proposed method of dissemination of notice set forth in the Notice Plan, Exhibit 1 to the Settlement Agreement. The Notice Plan meets the requirements of due process and is the best notice practicable under the circumstances. This method of Class Action Settlement notice dissemination is hereby approved by the Court.

Judge Louis J. Farina, Soders v. General Motors Corp., (December 19, 2008) No. CI-00-04255 (C.P. Pa.):

The Court has considered the proposed forms of Notice to Class members of the settlement and the plan for disseminating Notice, and finds that the form and manner of notice proposed by the parties and approved herein meet the requirements of due process, are the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and constitute sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice.

Judge Robert W. Gettleman, In Re Trans Union Corp., (September 17, 2008) MDL No. 1350 (N.D. Ill.):

The Court finds that the dissemination of the Class Notice under the terms and in the format provided for in its Preliminary Approval Order constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances, is due and sufficient notice for all purposes to all persons entitled to such notice, and fully satisfies the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the requirements of due process under the Constitution of the United States, and any other applicable law...Accordingly, all objections are hereby OVERRULED.

Judge William G. Young, In re TJX Companies, (September 2, 2008) MDL No. 1838 (D. Mass.):

...as attested in the Affidavit of Gina M. Intrepido...The form, content, and method of dissemination of notice provided to the Settlement Class were adequate and reasonable, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice, as given, provided valid, due, and sufficient notice of the proposed settlement, the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and these proceedings to all Persons entitled to such notice, and said Notice fully satisfied the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 and due process.

Judge David De Alba, Ford Explorer Cases, (May 29, 2008) JCCP Nos. 4226 & 4270 (Cal. Super. Ct.):

[T]he Court is satisfied that the notice plan, design, implementation, costs, reach, were all reasonable, and has no reservations about the notice to those in this state and those in other states as well, including Texas, Connecticut, and Illinois; that the plan that was approved -- submitted and approved, comports with the fundamentals of due process as described in the case law that was offered by counsel.

Judge Kirk D. Johnson, Hunsucker v. American Standard Ins. Co. of Wisconsin, (August 10, 2007) No. CV-2007-155-3 (Cir. Ct. Ark.):

Having admitted and reviewed the Affidavits of Carla Peak and Christine Danielson concerning the success of the notice campaign, including the fact that written notice reached approximately 86% of the potential Class Members, the Court finds that it is unnecessary to afford a new opportunity to request exclusion to individual class members who had an earlier opportunity to request exclusion but failed to do so...Specifically, the Court received and admitted affidavits from Carla Peak and Christine Danielson, setting forth the scope and results of the notice campaign. Based on the Court's review of the evidence admitted and argument of counsel, the Court finds and concludes that the Class Notice and settlement website as disseminated to members of the Settlement Class in accordance with provisions of the Preliminarily Approval Order was the best notice practicable under the circumstances to all members of the Settlement Class.
