

This Week in Congress

April 23, 2018

HOUSE

FAA BILL

Lawmakers will take up the 2018 FAA reauthorization bill (H.R. 4) this week.

JOBS HEARING

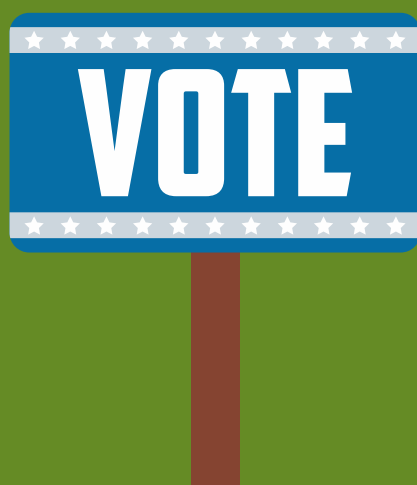

The House Ways and Means Committee will hold a subcommittee hearing on Wednesday to discuss the jobs gap from the employers' perspective

SEC BUDGET

The House Appropriations Committee will hold a subcommittee hearing with SEC Chairman Jay Clayton on Thursday to discuss the commission's FY 2019 budget.

SENATE

VOTE

Senators will consider the nomination of Stuart Duncan to be a judge for the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals

TAX LAW HEARING

The Senate Finance Committee will hold a hearing Tuesday with a panel of economists to gather their early impressions of the new tax law.

POMPEO VOTE

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee will vote today on the nomination of CIA Director Mike Pompeo to be the secretary of state.